The truth is clear: the government's complicity is undeniable, and their motives for keeping us in the dark are as predictable as ever.
But here's the twist—there's always a catch, and it is far darker than almost anyone realizes.
According to a Gates Foundation insider, these reports are on the money regarding the DOD involvement but they do not go far enough. These drones are not simply training for future warfare or surveilling the population.
The drones are spraying a concoction of chemicals on the masses, targeting urban centers and military installations and preparing to expand their activities across the nation.

After the American people rejected the New World Order agenda at the ballot box, it's no wonder the elites are in full-blown panic mode. Their response? Flooding our skies with more chemicals than ever, all in a desperate attempt to shape the narrative and control the future.

Daily Mail reported:

"Unidentified flying objects' are one thing,' the tech mogul said in the interview, 'but there's always a bunch of classified programs that are underway: new aircraft, new missiles and things.'"

The UFOs seen in the skies now are classified military vehicles, he says.

"Musk offered his best, unclassified assessment of what pilots and other military witnesses were encountering when they report a out of this world craft."

"If you had the top-secret compartmented clearance, you would know about this new program," Musk told Carlson as a hypothetical. "So, then, you know, some pilot sees something moving fast and says, 'Hey! I saw a UFO!'"

Musk continued, speaking from the voice of a hypothetical senior Pentagon official: "Yeah, that was actually a new weapons program but we can't tell you that."
